Grant Writing Resources

- Sign up for organizations newsletters, document deadlines in a calendar.
- Meet with grant agencies before you start writing to determine if your project is a good fit to ensure the time spent writing is worthwhile.
- Gather letters of support and vendor quotes early on and have materials ready for when new grants are released. This can take months...
- If a grant is closed, reach out to see if it will be re-opened as many are aligned with the fiscal year.
- Develop your story and build a good reputation both internally & externally.
- Before submitting application, get feedback from the grant agency.
- Build relationships with agencies through time, start small and gain trust.
